Meet the STUNT

Head Coach - Jessica Stiles

Jessica Stiles took over as the Spirit Coordinator and Cheer head coach for the startup program in the spring of 2015.

Stiles was named the 2017 USA Cheer STUNT Division II National Coach of the Year after leading OBU to the STUNT National Championship for the second consecutive year. Under Coach Stiles leadership the Lady Bison accomplished taking two National Cheer Association titles in 2019 and are the current champs in the D2 All Girl Advanced and D2 All Girl Intermediate divisions. Prior to 2019 the Lady Bison finished runner-up at the 2017 and 2018 National Cheer Association (NCA) National Championships.

In her first year at the helm, Stiles led the Lady Bison to a third-place finish at the NCA National Championships. OBU was also one of four teams to qualify for the STUNT National Championship in the first year of the program at Bison Hill.

Stiles has previously been an assistant cheer coach at the University of Central Oklahoma during 2011-2012 and served as the head cheer coach at St. Gregory's from 2013-2015. She has been involved at Mount St. Mary High School for eight years, where she serves as head cheer coach and communications director. Stiles has lead MSM to a state title and several top three finishes. Stiles was named the 2014 Oklahoma Region Coach of the Year and served on the high school state cheerleading board for five years.

Stiles is a graduate from the University of Central Oklahoma, where she was a captain and member of the nationally ranked cheerleading team.
